

Douglas W. Schroeder is the current President of the Orange County Trial Lawyers Association.

He has a national practice representing victims and their families in aviation, trucking and railroad accidents, as well as advising aircraft owners and operators.

Locally, Doug handles personal injury, wrongful death, and business litigation, from his firm in Costa Mesa.

Doug graduated cum laude from Western State University College of Law in 1988, where he was an editor on the law review. He was admitted to the California Bar that same year, and has practiced in state and federal courts throughout California, and across the country (on a pro hac vice basis), for the past 24 years.

Doug is an Adjunct Professor of Law at Western State teaching Evidence. He is rated "AV Preeminent" by Martindale Hubbel and repeatedly has been named a "Super Lawyer" in Personal Injury and Aviation matters.

Before opening his own office in 2006, Doug was a member of law firms ranging in size from 15 to 70 attorneys. His experience transitioning from large-firm to solo practice, and his service as a fee dispute arbitrator, have provided Doug unique perspectives on client relations, the efficient use of technology, and other management aspects of small-firm / solo practice.
