

ARTHUR W. GRAY Jr. Obituary

Arthur W. Gray, Jr., a long-time resident of Anaheim, died at his home on June 15, 2015 at the age of 86. He is survived by his wife of 60 years, Doreen, three sons, Peter, Paul and Thomas, and five grandchildren. Art grew up in Alhambra, and obtained his Bachelor's Degree at Valparaiso University in Indiana, where he served as student body president and remained an active alumnus throughout his life. He obtained his law degree from Hastings College in San Francisco, where he met his future wife. After two years in the army, Art married Doreen, and the young couple moved to Anaheim in 1956 where Art became a prominent probate attorney with his office in downtown Anaheim. During his 40 year practice, he was actively involved with the Orange County Bar Association, ultimately serving as its president in 1976. Later Art was elected to serve a term as a Governor of the California State Bar. His service to dozens of charities during his life are too numerous to list. Most notably, he was one of the founders of Orange Lutheran High School, serving on its Board of Directors from its birth in 1959 until the school opened in 1973. Known for his gentle soul and caring nature, Art was a member of Zion Lutheran Church in Anaheim since 1956, and also was a committed member of Kiwanis International. In addition to his family, Art leaves many friends and colleagues who will remember him fondly and miss him dearly.
