

PREMIERE SCREENING OF THE
DOCUMENTARY FILM

THE REENACTMENT OF THE
1943 HISTORICAL TRIAL -
DOSS V. BERNAL, ORANGE
COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT
CASE NO. 41466

A photograph in TIME Magazine September 6, 1943 showing Esther and Alex Bernal and their daughters, Irene, age 4 and Teresa, age 2.

Join us as we proudly present a special premiere screening of the 45-minute reenactment of the historical trial, Doss v. Bernal (Case No. 41466), eighty years later. Together, we will celebrate this landmark case, the courageous champions of justice who fought for equality, and its profound impact on the early civil rights movement. This trial helped dismantle barriers to equal justice in Orange County, neighboring communities, and beyond, leaving a legacy felt across the nation.

THE REENACTMENT OF THE 1943 HISTORICAL TRIAL
DOSS V. BERNAL

It was Written, Directed, and Produced by Hon. Thomas A. Delaney and Hon. Frederick P. Aguirre (Ret.) with Film Production by Buendia Productions, Eli Reyna and Randy Ruiz. The reenactment is based on pretrial deposition transcripts, court pleadings, court rulings, and periodical accounts.

In collaboration with Orange County Superior Court, this event is sponsored by the Orange County Hispanic Bar Association and is hosted by the Fowler School of Law.
