Join the OCBA Mommy Esquire Committee and Labor & Employment Section for an informative and engaging MCLE presentation on maternity leave. This program will provide an overview of the legal rights and benefits available to pregnant employees and to employees returning from parental leave. There will also be a panel discussion on law firm administration of maternity leave, discrimination and bias, and other workplace issues, including experiences from attorneys from a variety of law firm settings.

Lunch will be provided, compliments of the OCBA Labor & Employment Section
